

MEMBERSHIP CODE OF ETHICS

1. A member shall encourage students and public to recognize better education in dance, and strive to make this knowledge obtainable.
2. A member shall not discredit, malign, cause dissension, or use personal malicious gossip, or any other form of derogation, in regard to another school or teacher or the organization.
3. A member shall not use false or misleading statements to advise the material taught in the school.
4. A member shall refrain from making false statements or claims to past or present affiliations.
5. A member shall not open a school or solicit students while on the staff of a member's studio, unless mutually agreed.
6. A member shall not, through personal contacts by himself or his representatives or students solicit students who are attending another school.
7. A member should remember that programs and advertisements bearing your school name should be symbolic of the work taught in your school.
8. A member shall not through personal contact by himself or his representatives solicit faculty of another school without permission from the director of that school.